

Behave Policy

Appropriate behavior in public settings is a requirement of life for members of any society. Public schools are instruments of society and, therefore, the community that supports a public school district has the right to expect school officials to maintain a safe and secure environment and ensure that students, school personnel, and visitors to a school campus conduct themselves in an orderly, courteous, dignified, and respectful manner.